

Marily Mora, A.A.E.

President/CEO
Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority

Marily Mora, is the President and CEO for the Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority, and is responsible for leading and directing the Reno-Tahoe International Airport (RNO), and the Reno-Stead Airport (RTS), with an operating budget of $46 million.

Formerly the Assistant Director of Aviation for Oakland International Airport, Ms. Mora was recently named the new CEO of the Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority following a five-month long nationwide search.

Mora brings 25 years of airport management experience from three international airports including San Jose, Oakland and Reno-Tahoe International where she served as Chief Operating officer for 12 years before moving to Oakland in 2011.

Marily Mora is a true aviation professional and is prepared to lead both Reno-Tahoe International and Reno-Stead Airports in to the future. Marily understands the importance of strengthening air service, pursuing business development and leading a customer service organization.

Her community involvement included past Chair of the Washoe County Human Services Advisory Board, Past Board Member of the Nevada Women's Fund, and past member of the Development Committee of the Reno Air Racing Foundation. She is a graduate of the 2003 Reno-Sparks Leadership Class and a 2002 Nevada Women's Fund Woman of Achievement.

Mora is an Accredited Airport Executive and has a B.A. in International Relations from the University of California-Davis and an MBA from the University of Phoenix.

