CALIFORNIA PACIFIC AIRLINES ANNOUNCES ITS INAUGURAL SCHEDULE AND FARES

Nonstop Flights to Silicon Valley, Reno-Tahoe, and Las Vegas, Serving Tech and Tourism Travelers, Begin November 2018

Carlsbad, California. – AUGUST 27, 2018 - California Pacific Airlines (CPA) today announced the details of its inaugural west coast service that will commence November 1, 2018. Flying from its base at the McClellan – Palomar Airport in Carlsbad, California, CPA will initially offer service to the communities of San Jose, CA; and Reno-Lake Tahoe, NV. On November 15th CPA will add service to Las Vegas, NV. CPA will be announcing additional western routes in the near future. CPA will offer a variety of low fares on all flights, seating may be limited. For more information visit: www.mycpair.com or call reservations at 855-505-9394.

“Today’s announcement marks the culmination of a project that began in 2007, remarked CPA Chairman Ted Vallas. He continued, “California Pacific Airlines will bring the north county a new-found convenience in air travel options. Our initial set of cities will address the needs of both business and leisure travelers from nearby McClellan – Palomar Airport. Passengers can spend less time fretting the drive to and from the airport, and spend more time enjoying their destination.”

CP Air will initially operate 50-seat, Embraer ERJ145 aircraft on the four nonstop routes. The scheduled, commercial-service flights will operate from the passenger terminals at airports in San Jose, Reno, and Las Vegas.

“We are extremely pleased to be one of four launch airports for California Pacific Airlines and the convenient, nonstop service it will offer to travelers between San Diego North County and Silicon Valley,” said Mineta San Jose International Airport’s Director of Aviation John Aitken. “Our community will warmly welcome scheduled flights to the Carlsbad, California area, an in-demand destination for both tech and tourism. We appreciate CP Air’s investment in offering convenience for our local business and leisure travelers.”

The initial flight schedule between Carlsbad and San Jose, effective November 1st, will consist of two round trips each week day with a single round trip each Saturday and Sunday.
