History

- ➔ Originally known as Hubbard Field, named after Eddie Hubbard, VP and Operations Manager of Boeing Air Transport, who helped develop transcontinental air service.
- ➔ Boeing Transport, Inc. built the Airport in 1929.
- ➔ United Airlines acquired the Airport from Boeing in 1936.
- ➔ United continued to own and operate the Airport until 1953 when the City of Reno purchased it.
- ➔ Terminal Building was dedicated in 1960. The facility was completed in time for the Squaw Valley Olympics.
- ➔ The Airport Authority of Washoe County was created by 1977 Nevada Legislature to own and operate the Airport beginning in 1978. In July 2005, the name was changed to Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority.
- ➔ The Airport was named Reno-Tahoe International Airport in 1994, with the Terminal Building named after Senator Howard W. Cannon.
- ➔ Reno-Tahoe International Airport celebrated 75 years of service in November 2003!
